Course Description

Our Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training (L4 CET), formerly known as the Certificate in Teaching in the Lifelong Learning Sector (CTLLS), is an accepted progression point for aspirants wishing to expand on their knowledge and skills resultantly preparing trainee teachers to teach in a wide range of contexts.

Designed for individuals who have successfully finished the level 3 course, this qualification is perfect for those seeking to enhance their expertise and teaching skills. The level 4 course is designed to equip aspiring teachers with the necessary skills to effectively teach in diverse contexts. However, it's important to note that it does not require any prior teaching experience.

You are not required to be actively teaching or undergoing education training to fulfil the requirements of this qualification. However, it is mandatory to accumulate a minimum of 30 hours of teaching practice in an actual classroom by the completion of the qualification. Many candidates choose to initiate the course once they are in a teaching placement. In case you don't have a placement at the moment, you may refer to our Trainee Teacher Positioning Program whereby we offer assistance to fulfil the practical component of your course.

In addition you may refer to the FAQ section for a comprehensive list of our minimum requirements. Our CET course, which has UK OfQual accreditation, is offered completely online.
